If after reading this advertisement, you are saying to yourself, "this is where I want to work," contact us ASAP for a confidential interview.

We're not your typical roofing contractor; our products and workmanship are in a class by itself. Redhammer Roof Group is known in the community as a company with the highest standards of work and an undisputed reputation for customer service. We represent some of the finest brands on the market today and we take pride in installing high end products.

Since 1998 our success has been built upon our quality products, expert installation and most importantly a team of committed and successful individuals dedicated to being the best in the business.

The candidate we select will be a person who can "roll up their sleeves" and get the job done "no matter what." Your commitment to customer satisfaction is paramount and every job must start on time, end on time and on budget. You will be working directly with the Production Manager of the company, a "fair and square" individual who is committed to your success. He has very high standards and is a stickler for customer satisfaction; to be successful in this position you must also have these same qualities.
